I was provided with an orientation to the organization.
I understood my tasks and responsibilities.
Someone was available to provide assistance.
I was given assignments that were my primary responsibility.
My site supervisor monitored my progress during the internship.
I was assigned an appropriate amount of work.
This experience gave me a realistic preview of a field of interest.
I assumed additional responsibility as my experience increased.
The environment encouraged me to participate.
I was treated professionally.
The work I did was challenging and stimulating.
There was enough work to keep me busy.
I'd recommend this internship to other students.
